

Autodesk
Authorized Value Added Reseller

Autodesk
Authorized Training Center

AutoCAD 2010 Fundamentals– 5 days

Course Description

Success with AutoCAD begins with a solid foundation in the basics. This intensive, hands-on course equips the student with all of the knowledge and skills necessary for creating a basic 2D drawing. The course content is designed to meet Autodesk Certified Courseware standards for “AutoCAD for the Professional Level 1.

Course Prerequisite

No previous CAD experience is necessary. However, drafting, design, or engineering experience is a plus. It is recommended that you have a working knowledge of Microsoft® Windows® Vista, Microsoft® Windows® XP, or Microsoft® Windows® 2000

Course Length and Class Hours

- The AutoCAD 2010 Level 1 Fundamentals course is a five (5) day course.
- Training hours for the course are from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm.

Course Outline

- Creating a simple drawing and editing commands
- Making and changing precise drawings
- Drawing organization and Information
 - Organizing your drawing with layers
 - Two more object types
 - Getting Information from your drawing
- Creating More Complex Objects
 - Advanced Editing Commands
 - Inserting Blocks
- Setting up a layout and printing your drawing
- Annotating your drawing
 - Text Hatching
 - Adding Dimensions
- Advanced Editing Features
 - Changing an Object's Length
 - Productivity Tools
- Efficient Construction Techniques
 - Accurate Positioning
 - Creating and Managing Blocks
- Drawing Setup and Utilities
- Creating Templates
- Drawing Projects

Onix Technical Services
1 – 645 Belfast Rd.,
Ottawa, ON K1G 4V3

Phone: (613) 236-0567
Toll Free: 1-866-999-6649
Website: www.onix.ca